New Dates and Locations for April Education Days - Mark Your Calendars!

SOWMA will once again be delivering education days throughout the province in the first few weeks of April 2018.

The April Education Days have changed due to a scheduling conflict. Please mark your calendars for the dates and locations listed below:

April 10, 2018 - Swift Current
April 11, 2018 - Regina
April 12, 2018 - Weyburn
April 13, 2018 - Yorkton
April 24, 2018 - Prince Albert
April 25, 2018 - Saskatoon
April 26, 2018 - North Battleford

The focus for this year's education days will be pressure distribution systems. Participants will work through case studies to design pressure distribution for pressurized fields and mounds.

A review of mound design using linear loading will also be part of the program as will the most important aspect of system design – soils, soils, soils.

We will round out the program with maintenance troubleshooting tips.
